Previous Washington Integrated Justice Information Board Appearances

October 21, 2003

For new and returning members of the newly-created Washington integrated Justice Information Board, Bev Hempleman delivered a Federal Grants Overview presentation providing background about federal justice grants available to this group in the past, how funds had been allocated, and criteria based on earlier goals and objectives of the Justice Information Network. Also provided was a 2-page handout with general information about NCHIP and Byrne Five Percent Set-aside Grants, which also outlined the application process.

December 16, 2003

An information presentation by Paul Perz provided an overview of Byrne Grant procedures and discussed expectations for future awards.

March 15, 2005

Bev Hempleman provided information about upcoming federal grant allocations. She reminded members and interested applicants to review the new performance measurement requirements that she distributed in February 2005.
